Press Release

10/24/2011

On November 15th and 16th, Sawatdee Thai Restaurants will be hosting a dining fundraising event to raise money for Thailand flood relief. All Sawatdee locations will be donating 10% of dine-in sales from each day to the Thai Red Cross.

The devastating flood is the worst Thailand has experienced in over 50 years. The death toll from the flooding is 317 nationwide. Nearly 9 million people have been affected and 66 of the country's 77 provinces remain inundated with flood waters including Bangkok. The Prime Minister expects 6 more weeks of flooding before the waters recede.

All Sawatdee locations will be participating in the dining fundraiser. Here is a listing of the locations with phone numbers.
